GATHERING

- Prelude Pam Sherman
- Office of the Acolyte and Ringing of the Bell
- Welcome Pr Mel Musser

* THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

The assembly stands. All may make the sign of the cross, the sign marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

P: Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✚ one God, the fountain of living water, the rock who gave us birth, our light and our salvation.

C: Amen.

The presiding minister addresses the assembly.

P: Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness. Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

Water may be poured into the font as the presiding minister gives thanks.

P: We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters and by your Word you created the world, calling forth life in which you took delight. Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family. Through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom. At the river your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit. By water and your Word you claim us as daughters and sons, making us heirs of your promise and servants of all. We praise you for the gift of water that sustains life, and above all we praise you for the gift of new life in Jesus Christ. Shower us with your Spirit, and renew our lives with your forgiveness, grace, and love. To you be given honor and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

C: Amen.

WORD

• CHILDREN'S MESSAGE

Theme: Wisdom of God

Materials: Large, Life Size Plastic Owl

Scripture: Proverbs 8:1-11, 22-36

Good morning girls and boys. I hope you had a great week. I did. PJ and I spent this past week on vacation in Branson Missouri. We had a lot of fun. Today I brought with me this plastic owl. This guy usually sits on a fence post guarding our alpaca pasture and keeping away many other predators who might come by to eat our cats. This owl is sort of like a scare crow, keeping unwanted animals away. What do you know about owls? They hunt at night and sleep in the daytime. They can turn their head almost 180 degrees. That means they can literally see what's behind them. Owls are such good hunters, if you're lucky enough to have one nesting in your barn, you'll never have problems with mice!

Have you ever heard the saying as wise as an owl? Owls being wise has been around for a long-long time. In ancient Greece the Greek Goddess Athena was part owl. When I was your age I remember a TV commercial that asked the question How many licks does it take to get to the tootsie roll center of a tootsie pop. When the old turtle couldn't answer they ask the "Wise Old Owl." The owl takes a tootsie pop and begins to lick it. He counts one, two, three, and then bites the candy sucker and begins to enjoy the tootsie roll center. At this point Wise Old Owl announces it take three licks to get to the tootsie roll center of a tootsie pop. The announcer then tells all of us in the audience that the world may never know how many licks it takes to get to the tootsie roll center of a tootsie pop...

I know you will all become very wise and filled with knowledge of God. That's what I consider as someone who is wise-that they know not just about God and Jesus and the Holy Spirit, but they have an ongoing relationship with God and they listen to God and they listen for God to speak to them, even when it's hard to hear God's voice. You all can hear God's voice too. It's like knowing the difference between something that's wrong and what's right. Some of that knowledge comes with age and experience, but other wisdom you just know because God is whispering in the back of your mind. That whispering is called the Wisdom or inspiration of God.

Let's pray... Dear God, thank you for giving us even a small piece of your Wisdom. Help us to hear your wise voice and to follow what you are teaching us. Amen.

• SCRIPTURE READING: Proverbs 8:1-11, 22-36

P: Our scripture reading for this day is from Proverbs, Chapter 8.

C: Glory to you O Lord.

8 Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? <sup>2</sup>On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; <sup>3</sup>beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: <sup>4</sup>“To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. <sup>5</sup>O simple ones, learn prudence; acquire intelligence, you who lack it. <sup>6</sup>Hear, for I will speak noble things, and from my lips will come what is right; <sup>7</sup>for my mouth will utter truth; wickedness is an abomination to my lips. <sup>8</sup>All the words of my mouth are righteous; there is nothing twisted or crooked in them. <sup>9</sup>They are all straight to one who understands and right to those who find knowledge. <sup>10</sup>Take my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold; <sup>11</sup>for wisdom is better than jewels, and all that you may desire cannot compare with her.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. <sup>23</sup>Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. <sup>24</sup>When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. <sup>25</sup>Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth— <sup>26</sup>when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world’s first bits of soil. <sup>27</sup>When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, <sup>28</sup>when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, <sup>29</sup>when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, <sup>30</sup>then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, <sup>31</sup>rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race. <sup>32</sup>“And now, my children, listen to me: happy are those who keep my ways. <sup>33</sup>Hear instruction and be wise, and do not neglect it. <sup>34</sup>Happy is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors. <sup>35</sup>For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the Lord; <sup>36</sup>but those who miss me injure themselves; all who hate me love death.”

R: This is the Word of the Lord!

C: Praise to You, O Christ (Spoken)

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from Lady Wisdom who comes to us as God's Holy Spirit, amen.

Most of the time we consider wisdom comes with age and experience. Sometimes it comes directly from the mouths of children.

(SLIDE) Patrick, age 10, said, “Never trust a dog to watch your food.” · Michael, 14, said, “When your dad is mad and asks you, "Do I look stupid?" don't answer him.” · Michael said, “Never tell your mom her diet's not working.” · Katie, age 9, said, “Never hold a dust buster and a cat at the same time.” · Naomi, 12 said, “If you want a kitten, start out by asking for a horse.” Lauren, age 9 said, “Felt markers are not good to use as lipstick.” Joel, 10 years old, said, “Don't pick on your sister when she's holding a baseball bat.” And finally, Eileen, age 8 said, “Never try to baptize a cat.” Wisdom is a commodity we prize; we all want to be known as wise people. The question we have, of course, is, “How do we become wise?” “Does wisdom only come with age or with experience?” The eighth chapter of Proverbs gives us some interesting insights to wisdom—some may even surprise us.

(SLIDE) The author of the 8th chapter of the book of Proverbs starts out by introducing us to Lady Wisdom who is not out there somewhere, but out there, everywhere. She is literally standing on every street corner and at the

- * Please stand if able
  - Please be seated

very gates to the city. She is calling out to all people with her invitation to learn prudence and to acquire intelligence.

(SLIDE) Wisdom is the God people say they meet on Sunday mornings in nature, on the lake, or even in the roughs on the golf course. Wisdom is the God who meets you right where you are, accepts you, and includes you. Wisdom meets you where you are and then invites you to hear and heed God's Word. If the personified Lord God called Wisdom is everywhere calling us into relationship, what is our response? Do we stay where Wisdom finds us? Out there... Certainly not! Wisdom is calling us to learn and to be sensible. Our translation calls us to be prudent, but that's just another word for having common sense, to be sensible, or to be wise. As I started out saying, we tend to think of wisdom coming to older folks who've been around the pike a few times and have learned the ropes. They pass on their acquired knowledge to the younger generation as teachers and mentors.

(SLIDE) If that were the only way we can become wise then how do you explain the 12 year old who already knows the way to get her parents to agree to a family cat is to start out by asking for a horse... Maybe she read Donald Trump's "The Art of the Deal..." Or maybe there's something more going on here...

I'm going with the latter. There's something more going on here... That (SLIDE) something is the gift of the Holy Spirit, the very Wisdom of God...

God gives us the gift of Lady Wisdom when we hear her voice calling us from the crossroads and street corners. God's Wisdom comes to us also in Baptism (SLIDE) and in the promises made when we were Baptized. We teach our youth the foundations of God's story. We provide for their education in the ways God created the world and continues to create still today. We appoint mentors to lead and guide our youth so they can follow the ways of God's will. In these ways God imparts a spark of wisdom into each of us.

(SLIDE) We're invited into the creative activity God began all the way back at the beginning. If you have a talent for painting or singing or playing an instrument, all these are God's gifts to you for the purpose of becoming a co-creator with God in making joy for a fallen and sinful world. What if you're not a gifted artist? I'm just a regular person working a job in a factory. Does that mean I missed out on God's gift of wisdom? By no means! The lowest paid job in any factory still needs your spark of God's Wisdom. Luther famously said being a Christian shoe maker doesn't mean putting little crosses on every shoe. Rather, it means making the best shoes possible and praying for the one who wears them that they might be a blessing and protection for the feet of the one who wears them.

Let's look at the Gospel Good News in this scripture... We religious folks talk a lot about how sinful and despicable humans are, with good reason... Lutherans are known for laying great guilt trips on everyone. We confess every week just how depraved we are. We talk so much about the fallen state we find ourselves stuck in, we almost completely overlook how much joy God finds in us. Read again the words of Lady Wisdom from proverbs... <sup>27</sup>When he (GOD) established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, <sup>28</sup> when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, <sup>29</sup> when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, <sup>30</sup> then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, <sup>31</sup> rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race. Did you catch that last verse? God and Lady Wisdom are rejoicing in God's inhabited world and God delights in the human race. We don't hear that enough.

To be honest, we can't hear that enough.

(SLIDE) God rejoices in you!

God loves you! God isn't ashamed or angry with you.

- * Please stand if able
  - Please be seated

I think of God kind of like this... God the Father, God The Holy Spirit, and God the Son all created you and all do this happy dance everyday, all day long.

(SLIDE) God doesn't sit up there in heaven counting your transgressions. God's far too busy rejoicing over what a crowning achievement you are. Don't get me wrong, God still hates wrongdoing and injustice, but this God who rejoices over you is willing to overlook all those transgressions in order to love you and care for you.

Just because God's Lady Wisdom persona meets us wherever we happen to be, doesn't mean we should stay where we are, wallowing in our sin and transgressions. Lady Wisdom wants to lead us, to guide us, to mentor us into a better version of ourselves where sin and transgression becomes less and less, until that day when Jesus returns and finds us still trying to live up to the high standards of perfection God created us to become.

Proverbs tells us happiness comes to those who listen to Lady Wisdom. Is there anyone here who doesn't want to be happy?  (SLIDE) All of us want to find happiness. Wisdom says listen to her and you will find true happiness. This doesn't mean we'll never experience suffering or pain. Even Jesus said he came to call us to pick up our cross and follow him. Remember at the time Jesus said this, the cross was the instrument the Roman Empire used to

- * Please stand if able
  - Please be seated

impose extreme suffering and death on anyone who recognized God as the supreme being and Jesus as their Lord. Happiness isn't the lack of pain or suffering,  (SLIDE) but is knowing God and being known by God in spite of and in the midst of our suffering and pain.

Wisdom's teachings are valuable—more valuable than gold or silver. They are life transforming and open the door for us to experience life in the manner for which God created us. Wisdom—the Holy Spirit—doesn't teach us a bunch of rules. Instead, Wisdom teaches us about God and the more we know about God the more precious we find Wisdom to be. Wisdom teaches us about this God who creates order out of chaos. We learn that our God is a God of relationships and love. God longs to care for us and for us to live our lives in constant conversation and in relationship with Him. It is both humbling and fascinating to realize Wisdom, who has been present since before the beginning of time, has taken residence in our beings. Wisdom in the person of the Holy Spirit is our mentor who enables us to see creation and understand who God is, who we are, and the nature of God's creation. This is life transforming and it is a life-long journey of discovery.

(SLIDE) May you hear the voice of Lady Wisdom calling to you from every crossroad and streetcorner. May you rejoice in knowing Wisdom has

- * Please stand if able
  - Please be seated

come to dwell within you and wants to be your helper, advocate, and mentor. May God continue to pour out God's wisdom on you so you can be happy and live your life in the favor of the Lord your God. Amen.

Silence may be kept for meditation...

* APOSTLES' CREED

The Nicene Creed is said on all festivals and on Sundays in the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. The Apostles' Creed is said at other times. The Creed is omitted here if the service of Holy Baptism or another rite with a creed is used.

C: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
