OCTOBER 2023

Pumpkin spice season has arrive. I do not know if anyone else gets as excited over pumpkin spice as I do? There is a chill in the air. The pool is closed until next summer. That fall leaves lend a spectacular view of colors.

We started a new study series—Twelve Women of the Bible. Life-Changing Stories for Women Today. This month we will study Rebekah. We are all women of great strength and profound weaknesses. The story of Rebekah teaches us that God uses all kinds of women to accomplish His purposes. None of us fit into any specific stereotype—let's take an honest look at who God has made us to be!

The current slate of officers for 2023/2024 are as follows: President PJ Musser, Vice President Marge Warner, Secretary Julie Kossler, Treasurer Portia Boord, Wernle Rep Judy Ulrich and Bev and Eldon Erdman, Sunshine Committee Julie Kossler, Quilting Chair Linda Baker, LWR Judy Ulrich, Luncheon Chair Linda Baker, Giving Tree Pat Netzley and Pam Oswalt, Dinner Chair Katherine Jump.

Rada Knife ongoing fund raiser- see Portia. Next order to be sent on October 4th.

PJ donated 10% of her Mary Kay profit in the months of August and September.

Pizza Kits and Candy Bar sales to start.

Thank you, Julie Kossler, for organizing and updating the 2023-2024 Trinity Women's directory.

Our next meeting will be October 4th at 11:30 and our Hostesses will be PJ and Beverly.

Jesus loves you and so do I!

Word from Our Pastor

"For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? ... So faith comes from what is heard, and what is heard comes through the word of Christ." Romans 10:13-14, 17

My Dear Siblings in Christ,

When I think of the month of October, a number of images come to mind. First is the cool crispness of fall replacing the hot and humid days of summer. I really notice this when I'm taking Kimber and Pippa for their late night walks. Although the leaves around my house haven't turned quite yet, God coloring the leaves with brilliant yellows, reds and oranges will soon give us reason to think, "My God, How Great Thou Art!" October is also time of the harvest. All the hard work of preparing the ground for the seed, the planting, the spraying for weeds, the prayers for sun and rain have come to fruition. We all hope and pray for a bumper harvest, knowing only God gives the growth and the bounty of the earth.

Another image that comes to mind for me in October is Reformation Sunday. It's the Sunday we get to celebrate our Lutheran Heritage. On October 31st 1517 Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses on the Church door of Wittenberg Germany. These 95 "statements for discussion" were printed as fast as the new invention of the Gutenberg printing press could print them. They flew across Germany and the entire Roman Empire. On the Eve of All Saints Day in 1517 the Reformation was set in motion and the world would never be the same again.

October is a busy month for us here at Trinity. We will welcome Eric Hanes to speak about Church safety and security issues on October 8th at 9:00 am. We'll have a light breakfast and learn how to better protect ourselves while in and around our Church building. We also continue our Fall Festival tradition on October 22nd starting at 3:00 pm. There will be food, games, crafts, and lots of fun. Decorate your trunk if you dare! A costume parade will be certain to delight young and old alike. Finally, on October 29th, Reformation Sunday, three of our youngsters, Mercedes Angles, Claire Hein, and Devyn Thobe will reaffirm their Baptismal vows in the rite of Confirmation. We will have a celebration honoring these three confirmands after the Worship Service on that day.

October

I know October is packed. Please try to make it to the events you are able to attend. I actually had another article all written based on a few verses from the Book of Lamentations. It quickly became too morose... It still strikes me, as unscientific as this is, nevertheless, it seems to me, folks who are regular attendees at Worship and other congregational activities and events are happier, seem to be more peaceful, and also seem to be better equipped to overcome the obstacles in life than those who rarely or never attend Church functions. If you haven't been around Trinity for a while, I invite all of you to come back to Church and see if it makes a difference in your life. (If not, what have you wasted? Worship is less than an hour even with Communion, although I don't promise to come in less than an hour on Reformation/ Confirmation Sunday...)

My lament is for those who have not heard or have forgotten the Gospel of Jesus Christ. How will they be saved if they have not heard? May your faith be strengthened by hearing the Word of God. May your heart burn with a passion for hearing and then for re-telling the Gospel story. Amen!

In Christ's Love,
Pastor Mel

Starvation Diet

Well, if you want to lose weight- just eat less. So, what does this mean? But what about when this is taken to the extreme? "Starvation," or severe food restriction with very low-calorie levels, impedes weight loss. Did you know if you starve your body, your weight loss goal could be harder to achieve.

Not eating enough can slow the body's metabolism, making it harder to lose weight. Severe food restriction causes your body to conserve its fuel (stored fat). The result is that you burn less calories and stop losing weight. Then whether you are exercising, working or sleeping, you will burn fewer calories all day long. While "dieting" is supposed to mean deprivation and hunger, staying fed leads to more successful weight loss and maintenance.

When you don't eat, the body thinks you may be entering a period of famine. Who knows when the next food may come along, so the body conserves its stored calories for later use. This evolutionary protection of our ancestors makes an "all or nothing" eating pattern ineffective for weight loss. Even though sustained starvation over a long period of time will eventually result in weight loss, this is not a healthy or realistic weight-loss plan. Weight loss from starvation can cause lasting damage to the body and metabolism.

A starvation diet also causes a drop in serotonin. Serotonin creates the calm, peaceful and satisfied feeling. When serotonin levels get too low, people feel more agitated and crankier. Can we say "Hanger"? Eating, especially carbohydrates, supports a more consistent serotonin level and the emotional strength to stay on track.

Eat to lose weight? It's a shift in perception that must go with successful long-term weight loss. Dr. Laura Pawlak has evaluated the current science of weight loss and concludes, "A substantial and growing body of research suggests that the most effective approach to gradual and permanent weight loss is a food plan with lots of whole grains, vegetables, legumes, fruits and a moderate intake of good fats." In her book "Stop Gaining Weight," Pawlak suggests eating five or six times per day with lots of foods from plants and high in protein. Stay hydrated with lots of water and eat slowly to let your body realize it's full before you've gone overboard with extra helpings.

For the average dieter, periods of starvation result in "yo-yo" dieting cycles and a higher average weight as the years go by. "If exercise is combined with a low-fat, high-fiber food plan, generally more calories are burned than replenished," Pawlak says. Keep a healthy balance of eating fewer calories than usual combined with regular exercise to see results. If you feel hungry, eat some high-fiber, low-calorie food that can keep your metabolism running strong. Never drop below 1,000 calories per day. Exercise will boost your metabolic burn, helping you burn those extra pounds. But starvation is never the key to successful weight changes in the long term.

To Lose Weight You Must EAT!

Together we live into the mission of sharing God's grace.

PJ Musser MSN RN Parish Nurse

President's Perspective

To my fellow parishioners,

Two church members were going door to door. They knocked on the door of a woman who clearly was not happy to see them. She told them in no uncertain terms that she did not want to hear their message and then slammed the door in their faces.

To her surprise, the door did not close. In fact, it bounced back open. Seeing the two church members at the door frustrated her. She stormed back to the door and flung it shut. But the door still didn't close. Furious, she grabbed the door with two hands and shoved it as hard as she could. But again, the door wouldn't shut.

Convinced one of these rude church members was sticking a foot in the door, she reared back to give the door a slam that would really teach them a lesson.

Just then, one of the church members said, "Ma'am, before you do that again, you might want to move your cat out of the doorway."

Construction has begun on the new church sign. Thank you to not only those who have been helping with the beginning process but to all who donated specifically to this project.

We, the church council, had our meeting earlier this month to discuss aid for a family who is related to members in our church. The husband and father was injured severely in a wreck. We voted unanimously to aid them with their house payment through the end of the year. They have several children, and I would like to see a basket at the rear of the church and take up a cash donation, possibly on the first of December. The house payment will go directly to the bank, but the cash will be used at their discretion. Possibly a Christmas for their children? While discussing this with one member of our church, his comment was, "Dean, what else are we here for?"

My, how I love our church and all you people who are a very real part of our ministry.

In another part of the newsletter, I will attempt to explain what is going on with our elevator (lift).

If anyone of you have battery hearing aids which use p312 batteries, I have nearly a whole box you may have.

In Christ's name, be filled with His Love,

Dean

Congregational Meeting

ELEVATOR CONCERNS

As most of you know, at different times we have had problems with our elevator (lift), it is not really an elevator. Normally, all we need to do is get in the motor room and hit the reset button but that was not the case the week of September 4th. After a call from Bev Erdmann, I drove to the church for a simple fix which didn't turn out to be that way. On Friday morning I was able to get a repairman from the Otis Elevator company. The following is what the repairman believes our problem is and what we need to do to save a repair bill that could amount to over a thousand dollars. The last person to leave the church after the elevator has been in use needs to bump the lift up or down so it doesn't stop right on the floor. When it sits exactly on one of the three floors, there is a solenoid in each of the 3 door latches which stay energized as long as the lift is parked there. While energized, it heats up over a period of time. In heating up, it swells up as well and the pin in the solenoid is unable to release causing the lift reset to kick out.

For now, the lift can be used but I do not want anyone to use it if they are by themselves.

I will discuss this with the council at our October meeting and again at the November annual meeting. If the solenoid is the problem, and I don't know if any have been replaced over the years, the one with the problem is nearly 30 years old and maybe we just need to replace it. I am open to all concerns and questions. After meeting with some of you at the elevator and after much thought, I believe we should take a chance and spend the money on a new solenoid. That way, I hope, we will just use the lift as we have been for 30 years.

Dean

Good Things Happening in God's World

Brody, the therapy dog Story shared by Stephanie Kemp

God's work is all around us – all day, every day. Even through the darkest moments of grief and despair, God's light shines through and brings good to the world.

On October 10, 2020, the Roessner family experienced a tragedy that brought darkness to their world. Their son, Isaac, was in a terrible ATV accident with his best friend, Jake. While Isaac was not seriously harmed, Jake did not survive the crash. The Roessners grieved right along with Jake's family and watched as their son, Isaac mourned the loss of his best friend. The trauma from that event affected not only Isaac, but his family as well. Through this tragedy, God inspired 3rd grade Mississinawa Valley teacher, Amy Roessner, to find ways to support students who had or who are currently experiencing trauma. She saw how her son struggled after experiencing this traumatic event and she felt compelled to do something for the students at Mississinawa Valley. The idea of a therapy dog spoke to her heart, and she immediately began her mission. She wrote grants and reached out to many organizations asking for information and donations to purchase a therapy dog for Mississinawa Valley Schools. There were many times during this phase she questioned if this would be possible and if she could get it accomplished. Then, one day, God gave her a sign.

Mrs. Roessner had reached out to two different canine training centers only to find out they could not help. When she was ready to lose hope, she called a third trainer. This trainer was also unable to provide training or a therapy dog, but he was able to deliver God's sign that Mrs. Roessner had prayed for earlier in the day. He told her about his therapy dog experiences and said, "God will bless your classroom and do wonderful things for your students" if you can make this happen. This was the sign Mrs. Roessner had been waiting for and her heart was even more driven to find a therapy dog for our students.

After that phone call, more pieces of her mission began falling into place and without hesitation, God intervened once again. 1st grade Mississinawa Valley teacher, Megan Coatney, approached Mrs. Roessner about a litter of Bernedoodle puppies that were recently born under her care. The purpose of breeding her dogs was so Mrs. Coatney's son, Joel, could get his own therapy dog and potentially learn how to train other therapy dogs for his future career. Joel had access to a therapy dog at his previous school and he knew how much joy and support the therapy dog provided him and he decided he wanted to grow up to give that support back to others who needed it. Mrs. Coatney knew about Mrs. Roessner's plan and inspired by both her son and co-worker, donated a dog from her litter to Mississinawa Valley Schools. She also connected Mrs. Roessner with an official, therapy dog trainer. The final piece of the journey was in place and Brody was "hired" by Mississinawa Valley Schools in January 2023. Brody graduated and completed his training in August 2023 and is officially Mississinawa Valley's therapy dog.

Currently, Brody spends most of his day in Mrs. Roessner's classroom with various 3rd grade students. Brody is still just a puppy and is adjusting to the 350 kids he sees every day in the hallways. Once Brody gets more accustomed to school life, we foresee him wandering the halls unattended and visiting classrooms where students need emotional support. Until then, he will enjoy snuggles, smiles, and hugs from the 3rd grade students who visit Mrs. Roessner's classroom.

Brody may have been "hired" to be a therapy dog, but he is so much more than that. He is a reminder of God's light and love. His story proves God always has a plan and He will guide you if you listen to your heart and His calling. Whether it is at home, work, church or at Mississinawa Valley Elementary - God's presence is all around us - you just have to see His light even when it's dark.

Do you have a story about acts of kindness? If you have a story that you would like to share- you can either write it out on paper and give it to me or you may e mail me at pjmusser@woh.rr.com
